Thank you. Though I fail to see why non-classified, open, written communication between two public, federal officials would need any redactions at all.

Mr. Rutherford,

The redactions on the responsive records for your request have completed almost all of the necessary review and are being prepared for the final release approval. We hope to have that approval finalized within the next couple of weeks to be able to send you a final response letter with responsive records.

Best Regards,

Craig E. Greenberg, Esq.
